

Preface

The 2016 FourA Conference is an excellent platform for bringing together a diverse group of accounting researchers, academics, and professionals from, not only locally, but also internationally. This year's conference, with its theme 'Accounting in Developing Economics: Ethical, Regional and Contextual Issues', promises to continue its tradition of being the premier forum for the presentation of research results and reports on leading edge issue in accounting, including corporate governance, financial reporting, taxation, auditing, accounting information systems, environmental accounting, accounting education, management accounting, forensic accounting and Islamic accounting. This effort is greatly benefit all stakeholders in the area of accounting and other related areas.

Special thanks are given to all the reviewers, the scientific committees and the organizing committees for their invaluable efforts in making this event a great success.

Yours faithfully,
