

Preface - 5th International Scientific and Practical Conference 2021 "Modern science: problems and development prospects (social and humanitarian directions)"

SAHD 2021

On January 1, 2021, the 5th International Scientific and Practical Conference 2021 "Modern science: problems and development prospects (social and humanitarian directions)" was held. The conference was organized on the basis of the Omsk Humanitarian Academy and was held in Omsk, Russia.

The purpose of the conference was to discuss the results of the scientific research, conclusions and recommendations, exchange of the best practices and knowledge in the field of social and humanitarian sciences. The participants of the conference were representatives of science, business, public organizations, public authorities and local self-government, heads of enterprises of the real sector of the economy.

The conference received 311 manuscripts, 102 (32,8% acceptance rate) of them were accepted by our reviewers (well-known international experts in the field of social and humanitarian sciences). Full papers submitted to the conference were peer-reviewed by two to four reviewers per manuscript before being selected for publication.

We would like to express our high appreciation to the organizers, members of the program committees and reviewers of SAHD 2021 for their hard work. Without their participation, it would be impossible to hold SAHD 2021 successfully and ensure high quality of papers of the conference proceedings. We also would like to express our gratitude to the unbelievable number of authors for contributing their research results to the Conference. We also hope to meet again in the upcoming conferences.
