

Preface: Proceedings of 2024 International Conference on Language Research and Communication (ICLRC 2024)

2024 International Conference on Language Research and Communication (ICLRC 2024) held September 20-22, 2024 in Kuala Lumpur, Malaysia. It is a tremendous honor for the Cambridge Innovation Center (Singapore) to serve as the collaborative institution to enhance collaboration and mutually develop for being an international platform.

ICLRC 2024 focuses on high quality presentations and papers that address contemporary issues on fundamental research leading to new methods, or adaptation of existing methods for new applications related to the topics of language studies and cultural communication. It aims to deliver an outstanding global forum for academics, researchers, scientists, engineers, students in the world to link up, exchange information and discussion.

The conference has 6 keynote speeches and 9 invited speeches in total, and it has drawn about 120 delegates from 9 countries (China, India, Canada, United Kingdom, United States, Singapore, Malaysia, Australia, Philippines). The conference comprised a diverse spectrum of highly technical presentations by keynote and invited speaker sessions and authors of submitted papers.

We are pleased to present the SHS Web of Conferences of the ICLRC 2024 and we sincerely hope that all participants and interested readers would be benefited from this proceedings. We want to express our heartfelt appreciation to our contributors, sponsors, colleagues and associations that helped make this conference successful. We'd also want to thank everyone on the committees and editorial board for the assistance and feedback.

We expect this conference would encourage future language studies and cultural communication research. We look forward to seeing all of you at the next ICLRC.
